

FLOS OLEI 2011

Rome, September 30, 2010

Dear Producer,

we are glad to inform you that, after the testing effected by the editors Marco Oreggia and Laura Marinelli and their Panel of Expert Tasters on over 1,000 samples from Italy and the whole world, your extra virgin olive oil has been selected for the Guide "Flos Olei 2011 - a guide to the world best extra virgin olive oils", an instrument of information and promotion of the best olive oil producers in the world. The Guide is written in double language (Italian-English), as well as its new multimedia versions (iPhone and iPad).

We would like to remind you that you can still join the project Flos Olei point (the document can be downloaded from the site www.marco-oreggia.com) and purchase the volume on favourable terms. We also inform you that the multimedia version includes a section devoted to the Flos Olei points. If you want to be mentioned in this section, you have to associate by 10th October 2010.

However, even if you are not an associate Flos Olei point, you can have the discount granted to the producers who purchase the new edition of the Guide, as you can see in the shop (<http://shop.marco-oreggia.com>).

We thank you for your participation in our International Competition and we congratulate on your product.

Best regards

Marco Oreggia
